19 The Motion of Nuvel Credit Company LLC (“Nuvel”) filed herein on February 13,
20 2007, is being amended to correctly reflect the date on which the stated parties were served
21 via U.S. First Class Mail, Postage Prepaid as February 20, 2007.

22 The Amended Motion of Nuvel, secured creditor herein, respectfully represents:

23 1. The Debtor filed a Petition in this Court under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy
24 Code on October 17, 2006.

1           2. Debtor is in possession of collateral which, upon information and belief, is
2 owned by a third party and which is subject to Nuvel's first priority lien. Pursuant to Mont.
3 LBR 4001-1, Nuvel provides the following information:

5           A. The present balance owing to Nuvel, excluding any pre-computed interest or 6 other unearned charges, is $14,261.67.

8           B. The date upon which the subject debt was incurred was August 30, 2004.

10           C. Nuvel holds a security interest upon the following described property which,
11 upon information and belief, is in possession of the Debtor:
12

13                   2004 Kia Spectra, VIN KNAFE121445008986 (the "Vehicle").
14

15           D. On August 30, 2004, Diane Gates and Kenneth J. Gates entered into a Retail
16 Installment Contract and Security Agreement (the "Contract"), in writing, with Incredible
17 Auto Sales LLC of Billings, Montana, for the Gates' purchase of the Vehicle. A true and 18 correct copy of the Contract is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and by this reference
19 incorporated herein. Thereafter, Incredible Auto's interest in the Contract was in due course
20 assigned to Nuvel. Pursuant to the Contract, Nuvel has a security interest in the Vehicle.
21 Nuvel perfected that security interest by filing a Notice of Lien Filing with the Montana
22 Department of Motor Vehicles. A true and correct copy of the Notice of Lien Filing is 23 attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and by this reference incorporated herein. Upon information
24 and belief, in July 2006, the Gates entered into a subsistent contract with Debtor wherein the 25 Vehicle was traded to Debtor as part of the transaction. In the ordinary course of business, the dealer pays off the outstanding balance of the debt against the trade-in vehicle, and obtains title to the same. This did not happen in the present case. As a result, the full balance of the Contract is due and owing, and the Gates are in breach of the Contract.

1 E. A description of Nuvell's collateral, including its location, is as follows:

2 2004 Kia Spectra, VIN KNAFE121445008986

3 located in Debtor's possession.

4 F. The fair market value of Nuvell's collateral is estimated to be at least 5 $6,450.00.

6 G. There are no other security interests or liens which have priority over that of 7 Nuvell.

8 H. The Contract is in default for the December 14, 2006 installment in the 9 amount of $389.78, and each monthly installment due thereafter, for a total amount in default
10 of $778.46.

11 I. This Motion is made under and pursuant to 11 U.S.C., §362(d)(i) and 12 §362(d)(ii).

13 J. Other facts which are relevant in determining whether relief should be granted
14 are as follows: Failure to make payment on the Vehicle leaves Nuvell's interest in the 15 Vehicle inadequately protected. Nuvell did not consent to the trade in of the Vehicle without 16 payment of the balance owed. Nuvell cannot verify whether the Vehicle is properly insured
17 naming Nuvell as loss payee. Under applicable state law, if Debtor sells the Vehicle in the 18 ordinary course of business, Nuvell's security interest in the Vehicle may be jeopardized.

19 3. Nuvell further represents that in the event the court grants its Motion, Nuvell
20 will seek foreclosure and liquidation of the above-described collateral in accordance with 21 applicable non-bankruptcy law, and will dispose of the collateral in a commercially
22 reasonable manner.

23 4. Upon disposition, Nuvell shall account for all proceeds to the court and agrees
24 to turn over any proceeds in excess of Nuvell's allowed secured claim to the Trustee.
25

1                   WHEREFORE, Nuvell Credit Company LLC respectfully requests the court to grant
2 this Motion to Modify the Stay imposed by §362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3                   Dated this 20th day of February, 2007.

NOTICE TO DEBTOR

If you object to the motion, you must file a written responsive pleading and request a hearing within ten (10) days of the date of the motion. The objecting party shall schedule the hearing and shall include in the caption of the responsive pleading the date, time and location of the hearing by inserting in the caption the following:

NOTICE OF HEARING

Date: _____

Time: _____

Location: _____

This contested matter shall be scheduled for hearing for the next hearing date scheduled in the division within which the case is filed. The date, time and location of the hearing can be obtained from the Clerk of Court or from the Court's website at www.mtb.uscourt.gov. In the event such scheduled hearing date is thirty (30) days beyond the filing date of the motion for relief, then a preliminary hearing within such thirty (30) day period shall be scheduled by the responding party after such party contacts the Clerk of Court to confirm the preliminary telephone hearing date and time, which shall be set forth in the response.

If you fail to file a written response to the above Motion to Modify Stay with the particularity required by Mont. LBR 4001-1(b), and request a hearing, within ten (10) days of the date of this Notice, with service on the undersigned and all parties entitled to service under all applicable rules, then your failure to respond or to request a hearing will be deemed an admission that the motion for relief should be granted without further notice or hearing.

Dated this 20th day of February, 2007.
